PRESS RELEASE

Nocivelli, Tozzi, and Martina at the Opening Conference of Refrigera 2025

BolognaFiere, Wednesday, November 5

Cormano, October 21, 2025 – The opening conference of Refrigera 2025, the international refrigeration fair of industrial, commercial, logistics refrigeration, freezing and cryogenics organized by A151 srl and taking place at BolognaFiere from November 5 to 7, promises to feature prominent speakers.

The event, titled “Sustainability: Refrigeration at the Center”, is organized by the magazine ZeroSottoZero of Tecniche Nuove, in collaboration with Refrigera and Assofrigoristi (the Italian Association of Refrigeration Specialists). It will host:

- Marco Nocivelli, Vice President of Confindustria with responsibility for industrial policies and Made in Italy, and CEO of Epta;
- Mario Tozzi, senior researcher at CNR and science communicator on environmental issues;
- Maurizio Martina, Deputy Director of FAO Italy and former Minister of Agricultural, Food and Forestry Policies.

The conference, moderated by Marco Oldrati, Chief Operating Officer of Assofrigoristi, will begin at 10:00 AM in the Lord Kelvin Hall, Pavilion 30. Topics will include the cold chain, energy and environmental sustainability, and the challenge of climate change.

Refrigera 2025 will host around 50 conference sessions featuring leading industry experts. Discussions will cover, among other topics, the cold chain in large-scale retail, alternative refrigerants, cryogenics and applied developments, ultra-low temperatures, insulating materials, CO<sub>2</sub> and propane supply chains, and technologies for process refrigeration in industrial, pharmaceutical, and chemical-plastic sectors.

Refrigera 2025 will also serve as the stage for the PR Planet Refrigeration Awards, the inaugural
