Record Numbers for Refrigera 2025, the International Trade Fair for Industrial, Commercial, and Logistics Refrigeration, Freezing, and Cryogenic Technologies

From November 5 to 7, 2025, at BolognaFiere, the leading event for industry professionals

Bologna, November 5, 2025 – The 2025 edition of Refrigera, the international trade fair for industrial, commercial, and logistics refrigeration, as well as freezing and cryogenic technologies, organized by A151 srl, will take place at BolognaFiere from November 5 to 7, launching with record-breaking figures.

The event, unique in Italy and one of the leading exhibitions in Southern Europe, will cover over 10,000 square meters of exhibition space—12% larger than the previous edition. More than 320 exhibitors from 25 countries, including Belgium, China, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Poland, Czech Republic, United Kingdom, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand, and Turkey, will be present.

Refrigera 2025, organized by A151 srl, offers an exceptional opportunity to connect with the entire industrial, commercial, and logistics refrigeration supply chain. The event will welcome numerous national and international visitors, including refrigeration technicians, professionals involved in production and distribution within the food industry, transport and logistics operators, technical designers from various sectors such as food retail and GDO, and managers from leading companies in the industry.

The conference program includes approximately 50 sessions featuring highly qualified experts. Of particular interest is the inaugural event, titled “Sustainability: Refrigeration at the Center”, organized by ZeroSottoZero, a Tecniche Nuove publication, in collaboration with Refrigera and Assofrigoristi (Italian Refrigeration Technicians Association). Key speakers include:

- Marco Nocivelli, Vice President of Confindustria with portfolio for industrial policies and Made in Italy, and CEO of Epta;
